

Anne Treasure, CPA, JD

Senior Manager, Tax Division

Business Accomplishments

As a CPA with a law degree and extensive experience in public accounting serving a diverse range of business, individual, and nonprofit clientele, Treasure has been consistently recognized for providing clients with quality tax service in a very efficient and highly professional manner. She is highly skilled at researching and explaining complex tax issues to clients and staff members, and dealing with local, state and federal tax authority notices and audits.

After getting her JD at Vanderbilt University in 1986, Treasure worked in the tax department of Ernst & Young, LLP and a local firm before joining Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co. in 2009.

Recognitions and Affiliations

Member of Ohio Bar Association.

Community Involvement

Treasure volunteers for a variety of school, sports, and community activities in Grandview Heights. She is also active in her church.