

Joseph W. Holdrieth, Jr., CPA

Treasurer; Vice President of Accounting and Auditing

Business Accomplishments

Joseph Holdrieth's more than thirty-five years of experience assisting with the financial growth of privately-held businesses uniquely qualifies him for his posts as Partner, Chief Financial Officer, and member of the Accounting & Auditing Group, Tax Division and Family Business Group. After four years with Ernst & Young, one of the nation's largest accounting firms, he co-founded one of the entities that eventually evolved into Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co. in 1973.

A 1969 graduate of Ohio University, Holdrieth has been involved with audits for a diverse array of clients, including public entities, manufacturers and service providers. He also has worked with clients in industries as diverse as multi-location restaurants, distribution, manufacturing and construction firms, advising on central issues like profitability and strategic planning. His special expertise in the areas of auditing, taxation and management consulting meets the needs of privately-held and family owned businesses through his integration of these comprehensive services.

Recognitions and Affiliations

Throughout his career, Holdrieth has remained active in the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. He also has received a Certificate of Educational Achievement from the AICPA in Government Accounting and Auditing.

Community Involvement

Holdrieth was one of the founders of the Hickory Hills Golf Club, where he has served as Board Member, Treasurer, Vice President and member of the Finance Committee. He was a Board member and past president of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce, and formerly was Vice-Chairman of the Business Advisory Council of the Dublin City Schools, President of the Dublin Fund and Treasurer of Leadership Dublin.
