

Paul Ritchey, CPA, MT

Vice President of Zanesville Office

Business Accomplishments

Paul Ritchey has provided financial advice and tax planning strategies to clients in the construction industry for over twenty-five years. He blends his professional knowledge of the construction industry with practical experience as an entrepreneur, as a founder of one of the accounting firms that eventually became Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co.

Ritchey develops business, tax and estate plans for closely-held businesses, corporations and individual clients. He is also a Partner and a member of both the Construction Group and the Family Business Group.

A native of Zanesville, Ritchey holds an undergraduate degree in Accounting from The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business and a Master in Taxation from Capital University Law School. Ritchey was also a member of Ohio University-Zanesville's first Leadership Academy class.

Recognitions and Affiliations

Ritchey is a member of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and has served many years as a technical advisor and member of the Zane State College's Accounting Curriculum Committee.

Community Involvement

Ritchey is actively involved in the central Ohio community as a member of the Zanesville Chamber of Commerce, Rotary International and the Small Business and Economic Development Council. He serves on the Bishop Rosecrans High School Finance Committee and on the Accounting Curriculum Committee of the Muskingum Area Technical College. Ritchey is also a member of St. Nicholas Catholic Church and serves as a Eucharistic Minister.