

Isaiah Stidham, MAcc, CPA, CFP®

Manager, Tax Division

Business Accomplishments

After earning his bachelor's degree in accounting from Otterbein College, Isaiah attended graduate school at The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business where he attained his master's degree. Following graduation, Isaiah joined the Private Client Advisors group at Deloitte Tax, LLP where he specialized in tax compliance and planning for high-net worth individuals, estates, trusts, and family-owned businesses.

In 2010, Isaiah joined Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co. As a manager in the Tax division, Isaiah is responsible for preparation and review of tax compliance and consulting related to individual, trust, estate, gift, and business taxation. As both a CPA and a CFP, his focus continues to be on providing the highest quality tax planning services for family-owned businesses and high-net worth individuals.

Throughout his career, Isaiah has also been active in helping to educate clients and financial service professionals in the areas of individual, estate and business taxation through general consulting, presentations, and various publication contributions. Isaiah is a member of NJE's Sales and Marketing, and Investment Committees.

Recognitions and Affiliations

Active in his industry, Isaiah is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Financial Planning Association of Central Ohio.

Community Involvement

Isaiah is a member of the Friends of COSI and has contributed his time to the Franklin County Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) Coalition and various other community activities.
