

Paul Ritchey, CPA, MT

Vice President of International Tax; Board Member

Business Accomplishments

As a founder of one of the accounting firms that eventually evolved into Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co., Paul Ritchey combines his entrepreneurial experience with an in-depth knowledge of the construction industry and his accounting background to offer clients unique insight and expertise. Paul is a member of both the Construction Group and the Family Business Group. He also sits on NJE's Board of Directors and offers his expertise as a member of the Executive Committee and the Sales and Marketing Committee.

Over the past two and half decades, Paul has provided financial advice and developed tax planning strategies for clients in the construction industry, closely held businesses, other corporations, and individual clients. He specializes in developing business, tax, and estate plans.

A native of Zanesville, Paul holds an undergraduate degree in accounting from The Ohio State University's Fisher College of Business. He earned his Master in Taxation from Capital University Law School. Paul was a member of Ohio University–Zanesville's first Leadership Academy class.

Recognitions and Affiliations

Paul is a member of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Community Involvement

To give back to the central Ohio community, Paul participates as a member of the Zanesville Chamber of Commerce and Rotary International. He served on the Bishop Rosecrans High School Finance Committee. He has also contributed his time as a technical advisor and member of Zane State College's Accounting Curriculum Committee for many years. Paul is a member of St. Nicholas Catholic Church, where he serves as a Eucharistic Minister.

