

Scott E. Grimes, CPA, JD

Secretary; Vice President of Taxation Division; Board Member

Business Accomplishments

As a highly experienced tax professional and lawyer, Scott Grimes has spent 36 years advising and advocating for the interests of central Ohio businesses and not-for-profit organizations. He joined Norman, Jones, Enlow & Co. in 1985 and began directing the firm's tax functions in 1990. Today, he serves as the firm's secretary, a member of the Board of Directors, and a member of the Executive Committee. Scott's expertise in tax law and income, estate, and gift tax planning directly benefit our clients' bottom lines.

Previously in his career, Scott served as Tax Manager for Deloitte & Touche, one of the nation's largest accounting firms. He has also taught taxation and auditing classes at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Scott holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Wittenberg University and a Juris Doctorate from the UCLA School of Law.

Recognitions and Affiliations

Scott enjoys national recognition for his work in the areas of tax law, income tax planning, research, and compliance. Throughout his career, he has published articles in various state and national tax magazines and journals, including Journal of Accountancy, Taxation for Lawyers, and Ohio CPA Journal. Highly involved in the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants, Scott served on the organization's Tax Practice Committee and is a past president of the Columbus chapter's Tax Club. Scott retains membership in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Community Involvement

Scott makes a point of playing an active role within the central Ohio community, serving as treasurer of the Worthington Estate Planning Council. He has been an officer of several Upper Arlington community organizations and is the past chairperson and a present member of the Upper Arlington Neighborhood Lighting Utility. Scott previously sat on the Board of Directors of the Columbus Speech and Hearing Center and is currently a member of the center's Finance Committee. He has participated in the Loaned Executive to Business Jobs for Youth Program of the Employment and Education Commission of Franklin County.

